INTRODUCTION

Advice? Who needs it?

Apparently everyone, because we're bombarded with it throughout our lives. The deluge begins with such dire parental warnings as, "If you don't wear your galoshes, you'll catch your death of cold!" and "Be careful or you'll poke your eye out!" Aesop's Fables and cautionary fairy tales introduce us to countless other moral messages. Whatever one's faith, religious education focuses on some form of the "Do unto others" Golden Rule. High school and college literature courses include Polonius's time-worn "to thine own self be true" catalog of counsel in Hamlet, and David Copperfield's Mr. Micawber and his classic "Annual income twenty pounds . . ." explanation of financial planning. And just when we thought we were finished with faculty advisors and guidance counselors, graduation speakers send us on our way with their advice for getting ahead.

Opinions are everywhere. Got a medical problem? Doctors will dispense advice along with pills. A legal problem? Lawyers are in the business of providing counsel, which is why they're referred to as counselors. Newspaper columnists such as "Dear Abby" and "Miss Manners" include advice in print. Religious leaders, infomercials, and television hosts like Oprah and Dr. Phil do so over the airwaves. Along with every other sort of information, the Internet is advice-rich in all manner of subjects. And throughout our lives, friends and relatives share wisdom and experience of varying degrees of usefulness that begin with a knowing nod and an "I'm going to give you a piece of advice . . ."

How we accept advice depends on what it is and by whom and how it's given. Much of the time we brush it off, because as a New England proverb suggests, "Advice would always be more acceptable if it didn't conflict with our plans." Or we run in the other direction—as the actress Marie Dressler (older readers will remember her as "Tugboat Annie") snapped, "No vice is so bad as advice." Confusing the situation is the abundance of contradictory advice, of the "absence-makes-the-heart-grow-fonder" variety versus "Out of sight, out of mind."

On the other hand, sound advice is not only tolerable, it's welcome. First of all, it tends to be terse—a volume of wisdom in a sentence or two—which is both appealing and expected in this sound-byte age. More important, it sets our feet on the right path; who indeed would want to disregard the global positioning that moral or practical compasses can give? That's what you'll find in this book. Included is advice on education ("Formal education will make you a living. Self-education will make you a fortune." —Jim Rohn), life and living ("Don't carry a grudge. While you're carrying the grudge, the other guy's out dancing." —Buddy Hackett), and success of a personal and financial nature ("You can have it all. You just can't have it all at one time." —Oprah Winfrey).

Also represented here are both romantic and platonic love and friendship ("Immature love says: 'I love you because I need you.' Mature love says: 'I need you because I love you.'" —Erich Fromm), inspiration ("If you can dream it, you can do it." —Walt Disney), and creativity and the arts ("Take the best that exists and make it better. If it doesn't exist, create it." —Sir Henry Royce).

Sports and competition weigh in ("One hundred percent of shots not taken don't go in." —Wayne Gretzky), as do business and leadership

Chapter One

Let Others Light Their Candles

{Advice on a Proper Education}

“One child, one teacher, one book, one pen can change the world.”

—MALALA YOUSAFZAI

If you have knowledge, let others light their candles in it.

—MARGARET FULLER

“Try to learn something about everything and everything about something.”

—THOMAS HENRY HUXLEY

In youth we learn; in age we understand.

— MARIE VON EBNER-ESCHENBACH

Learn as though you would never be able to master it; hold it as though you would be in fear of losing it.

— CONFUCIUS

“Ignorance is not a virtue.”

— BARACK OBAMA

Education is only the ladder with which to gather fruit from the tree of knowledge, not the fruit itself.

— ANONYMOUS

Those who cannot learn from history are doomed to repeat it.

— GEORGE SANTAYANA

Never seem wiser, nor more learned, than the people you are with.
Wear your learning, like your watch, in a private pocket, and do not merely pull it out and strike it merely to show that you have one.

— LORD CHESTERFIELD

Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.

— MALCOLM X

— LINDA KNIGHT

Study as if you were going to live forever; live as if you were going to die tomorrow.

— MARIA MITCHELL

Never help a child with a task at which he feels he can succeed.

— MARIA MONTESSORI

The man who does not read good books has no advantage over the man who cannot read them.

— MARK TWAIN

An investment in knowledge pays the best interest.

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

“We cannot hold a torch to light another’s path without brightening our own.”

— BEN SWEETLAND

Trust should be the basis for all our moral training.

— SIR ROBERT BADEN-POWELL

“To bring up a child in the way he should go, travel that way yourself once in a while.”

— JOSH BILLINGS

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.

— NELSON MANDELA

Parents must get across the idea that “I love you always, but sometimes I do not love your behavior.”

— AMY VANDERBILT

Acquire new knowledge whilst thinking over the old, and you may become a teacher of others.

— CONFUCIUS

Correction does much, but encouragement does more.
Encouragement after censure is as the sun after a shower.

— JOHANN VON GOETHE

Education is what remains after one has forgotten what one has learned in school.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

The proof that you know something is that you are able to teach it.

— ARISTOTLE

“If you want to know the taste of a pear, you must change the pear by eating it yourself. If you want to know the theory and methods of revolution, you must take part in revolution.

All genuine knowledge originates in direct experience.”

— MAO TSE-TUNG

The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education.

— MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

Give a man a fish, and you have fed him for a day.
Teach a man to fish, and you have fed him for the rest of his life.

— CHINESE PROVERB

Give a man a fish and he has food for a day; teach him how to fish and you can get rid of him for the entire weekend.

— ANONYMOUS

Men are born ignorant, not stupid; they are made stupid by education.

— BERTRAND RUSSELL

The wise learn many things from their enemies.

— ARISTOPHANES

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

— KAHLIL GIBRAN

It's so simple to be wise. Just think of something stupid to say and then don't say it.

— SAM LEVENSON

"You can tell whether a man is clever by his answers.
You can tell whether a man is wise by his questions."

— NAGUIB MAHFOUZ

Doubt everything at least once, even the proposition that two times two equals four.

— GEORG C. LICHTENBERG

Knowledge is power. Information is liberating.
Education is the premise of progress, in every society, in every family.

— KOFI ANNAN

A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds.

— RALPH WALDO EMERSON

Don't let schooling interfere with your education.

— MARK TWAIN

Nothing is more important for the public welfare than to form and train our youth in wisdom and virtue.

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Never look down on anyone unless you're helping him up.

— JESSE JACKSON

The only real mistake is the one from which we learn nothing.

— JOHN POWELL

Formal education will make you a living.
Self-education will make you a fortune.

— JIM ROHN

Have a feedback loop, where you're constantly thinking about what you've done and how you could be doing it better.

— ELON MUSK

Learn all you can about people in other parts of the world. Understanding how people in other countries live and work and play teaches us to respect them and promotes peace everywhere.

— CAROL BELLAMY

Real education should educate us out of self into something far finer; into a selflessness which links us with all humanity.

— NANCY ASTOR

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, concerned citizens can change the world. Indeed it is the only thing that ever has.

— MARGARET MEAD

Leaders think and talk about the solutions.
Followers think and talk about the problems.

— BRIAN TRACY

Around here we don't look backwards for very long. We keep moving forward, opening up new doors and doing new things, because we're curious—and curiosity keeps leading us down new paths.

— WALT DISNEY

Learning is not attained by chance, it must be sought for with ardor and attended to with diligence.

— ABIGAIL ADAMS

Example isn't another way to teach, it is the only way to teach.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

I've learned that the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.

— ANDY ROONEY

•

Learning is not a spectator sport.

— ANONYMOUS

Thank goodness I was never sent to school;
it would have rubbed off some of the originality.

— BEATRIX POTTER

If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest.

— BEN FRANKLIN

Few things help an individual more than to place responsibility upon him and let him know that you trust him.

— BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

One looks back with appreciation to the brilliant teachers, but with gratitude to those who touched our human feelings. The curriculum is so much necessary raw material, but warmth is a vital element for the growing plant and for the soul of the child.

— CARL JUNG

Children want the same things we want. To laugh, to be challenged, to be entertained, and delighted.

— DR. SEUSS [THEODOR GEISEL]

Learning is not compulsory. Neither is survival.

— DR. W. EDWARDS DEMING

I like a teacher who gives you something to take home to think about besides homework.

— EDITH ANN [LILY TOMLIN]

If the only tool you have is a hammer, you tend to see every problem as a nail.

— ABRAHAM MASLOW

You can teach a student a lesson for a day; but if you can teach him to learn by creating curiosity, he will continue the learning process as long as he lives.

— CLAY P. BEDFORD

A man's mind, stretched by new ideas, may never return to its original dimensions.

— OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES JR.

Chapter Two

Quit When the Gorilla Is Tired

{Advice on Life and Living}

[Life] is a little like wrestling a gorilla. You don't quit when you're tired—you quit when the gorilla is tired.

— ROBERT STRAUSS

You can get much further with a kind word and a gun than you can with a kind word alone.

— AL CAPONE

Don't hurry. Don't worry. You're only here for a short visit. So don't forget to stop and smell the roses.

— WALTER HAGEN

Never go to a doctor whose office plants have died.

— ERMA BOMBECK

“Saying ‘Gesundheit!’ doesn’t really help the common cold, but it’s every bit as effective as anything the medical profession has prescribed.”

— ANONYMOUS

•

Choose freedom over fear.

— JANELLE MONAE

Be careful about reading health books. You may die of a misprint.

— MARK TWAIN

— KAY LYONS

—OPRAH WINFREY

— HORACE,

AS TRANSLATED BY JOHN DRYDEN

Health is the greatest gift, contentment the greatest wealth, faithfulness the best relationship.

— BUDDHA

We are all in this together.

— HELEN MIRREN

In baiting a mousetrap with cheese, be sure to leave room for the mouse.

— H. H. MUNRO (SAKI)

•

Keep cool; anger is not an argument.

— DANIEL WEBSTER

There is one piece of advice, in a life of study, which I think no one will object to; and that is, every now and then to be completely idle—to do nothing at all.

— SYDNEY SMITH

“The time to relax is when you don’t have time for it.”

— SYDNEY J. HARRIS

An important way you can serve and lead is by helping build resilience in the world.

— SHERYL SANDBERG

The only way to get rid of a temptation is to yield to it.

— OSCAR WILDE

Don't worry about avoiding temptation . . .

as you grow older, it will avoid you.

— WINSTON CHURCHILL

•

The most important skill you need is asking “What am I not seeing?”

— FAREED ZAKARIA

There's only one corner of the universe you can be certain of improving, and that's your own self.

— ALDOUS HUXLEY

Have no fear of perfection—you'll never reach it.

— SALVADOR DALI

“Never lend your car to anyone to whom you have given birth.”

— ERMA BOMBECK

Life is an echo—what you send out comes back.

— ANONYMOUS

The wise man will always reflect concerning the quality, not the quantity, of life.

— LUCIUS ANNAEUS SENECA

Do not try to live forever. You will not succeed.

— GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

“If you’re going to do something tonight that you’ll be sorry for tomorrow morning, sleep late.”

— HENNY YOUNGMAN

Don’t eat yellow snow.

— ANONYMOUS

Half our life is spent trying to find something to do with the time we have rushed through life trying to save.

— WILL ROGERS

Don't carry a grudge. While you're carrying the grudge, the other guy's out dancing.

— BUDDY HACKETT

Life is change. Growth is optional. Choose wisely.

— KAREN KAISER CLARK

When you come to a fork in the road, take it.

— YOGI BERRA

Never try to teach a pig to sing.
It wastes your time and annoys the pig.

— SOURCE UNKNOWN

When one door closes, another one opens, but we often look so long and regretfully at the closed door that we fail to see the one that has opened for us.

— ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL

“A man has to live with himself, and he should see to it that he always has good company.”

— CHARLES EVANS HUGHES

Retirement kills more people than hard work ever did.

— MALCOLM FORBES

He who has health has hope. And he who has hope has everything.

— ARABIAN PROVERB

He that finds discontentment in one place is not likely to find happiness in another.

—AESOP, THE ASS AND HIS MASTERS

Age is not important unless you're a cheese.

—HELEN HAYES

What's a man's first duty? The answer's brief: to be himself.

—HENRIK IBSEN

What the hell—you might be right, you might be wrong . . . but don't just avoid.

—KATHARINE HEPBURN

You don't stop laughing because you grow older.

You grow older because you stop laughing.

— MAURICE CHEVALIER

The attributes of a great lady may still be found in the rule of the four S's: Sincerity, Simplicity, Sympathy, and Serenity.

— EMILY POST

•

It is dangerous to be sincere unless you are also stupid.

— GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

If someone offers you a breath mint, accept it.

— H. JACKSON BROWN

The whole business of marshaling one's energies becomes more and more important as one grows older.

— HUME CRONYN

“In matters of grave importance, style, not sincerity, is the vital thing.”

— OSCAR WILDE

Love yourself, respect yourself. Never sell yourself short. Believe in yourself regardless of what people think. You can accomplish anything, absolutely anything, if you set your mind to it.

— MARCUS ALLEN

A good time for laughing is when you can.

— JESSAMYN WEST

Do not take life too seriously. You will never get out of it alive.

— ELBERT HUBBARD

Do not go gentle into that good night but rage, rage against the dying of the light.

— DYLAN THOMAS

“Subdue your appetites, my dears, and you’ve conquered human nature.”

— DOROTHY CANFIELD FISHER

A man should never be ashamed to admit he has been in the wrong, which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.

— ALEXANDER POPE

As I grow older, I pay less attention to what men say. I just watch what they do.

— ANDREW CARNEGIE

In the fight between you and the world, back the world.

— FRANZ KAFKA

Expecting the world to treat you fairly because you are good is like expecting the bull not to charge because you are a vegetarian.

— DENNIS WHOLEY

Always acknowledge a fault frankly. This will throw those in authority off their guard and give you opportunity to commit more.

— MARK TWAIN

Nothing is more responsible for the good old days than a bad memory.

— FRANKLIN P. ADAMS

If you're going to kick authority in the teeth, you might as well use two feet.

— KEITH RICHARDS

Always do sober what you said you'd do drunk. That will teach you to keep your mouth shut.

— ERNEST HEMINGWAY

Age appears to be best in four things; old wood best to burn, old wine to drink, old friends to trust, and old authors to read.

— SIR FRANCIS BACON

Don't worry about the world coming to an end today. It's already tomorrow in Australia.

— CHARLES SCHULZ

“The etiquette advice you need is how to say no politely. You do it cheerfully, with apologies but no excuses. ‘I’m so sorry, I can’t this time; I hope you find someone’ is all that is necessary.”

— JUDITH MARTIN (MISS MANNERS)

Youth is the gift of nature, but age is a work of art.

— STANISLAW JERZY LEC

It is not what we do, but also what we do not do, for which we are accountable.

— JEAN-BAPTISTE MOLIERE

“Teach thy tongue to say ‘I do not know,’ and thou shalt progress.”

— MOSES MAIMONIDES

Here is my biggest takeaway after 60 years on the planet:
There is great value in being fearless. For too much of my life,
I was too afraid, too frightened by it all.
That fear is one of my biggest regrets.

— DIANE KEATON

Knowing is not enough; we must apply.

Willing is not enough; we must do.

— JOHANN VON GOETHE

You never know what is enough unless you know what is more than enough.

•

A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory.

— STEPHEN WRIGHT

•

It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are.

— E E CUMMINGS

From what we get, we can make a living; what we give, however, makes a life.

— ARTHUR ASHE

Start by doing what is necessary; then do what is possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible.

— ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

You can't do anything about the length of your life, but you can do something about its width and depth.

— H. L. MENCKEN

By the time a man is wise enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.

— BILLY CRYSTAL

Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty and well preserved body, but rather to skid in broadside in a cloud of smoke, thoroughly used up, totally worn out, and loudly proclaiming “Wow! What a Ride!”

— HUNTER S. THOMPSON

“A young man who desires to know all that in all ages in all lands has been thought by the best minds, and wishes to make a synthesis of all these thoughts for the future benefit of mankind, is laying up for himself a very miserable old age.”

— MAX BEERBOHM

Don't go around saying the world owes you a living.
The world owes you nothing. It was here first.

— MARK TWAIN

When a person doesn't have gratitude, something is missing in his or her humanity. A person can almost be defined by his or her attitude toward gratitude.

— ELIE WIESEL

I was training to be an electrician. I suppose I got wired the wrong way round somewhere along the line.

— ELVIS PRESLEY

You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, "I lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along."

— ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

You've got to be very careful if you don't know where you are going, because you might not get there.

— YOGI BERRA

Nature gives you the face you have at twenty; it is up to you to merit the face you have at fifty.

— COCO CHANEL

Why is it that we rejoice at a wedding and cry at a funeral?
It is because we are not the person involved.

— MARK TWAIN

Neither should a ship rely on one small anchor, nor should life rest on a single hope.

— EPICTETUS

Success is just a war of attrition. Sure, there's an element of talent you should probably possess. But if you just stick around long enough, eventually something is going to happen.

— DAX SHEPARD

When people talk, listen completely. Most people never listen.

— ERNEST HEMINGWAY

A day without laughter is a day wasted.

— CHARLIE CHAPLIN

“Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you will never, ever have enough.”

— OPRAH WINFREY

You must try to generate happiness within yourself.

If you aren't happy in one place, chances are you won't be happy anyplace.

— ERNIE BANKS

•

Man, I really like Vegas.

— ELVIS PRESLEY

The true measure of an individual is how he treats a person who can do him absolutely no good.

— ANN LANDERS

Motivation is a fire from within. If someone else tries to light that fire under you, chances are it will burn very briefly.

— STEPHEN R. COVEY

You can have anything you want if you are willing to give up the belief that you can't have it.

— ROBERT ANTHONY

A true friend is one who overlooks your failures and tolerates your success!

— DOUG LARSON

It's a funny thing about life: If you refuse to accept anything but the very best, you will very often get it.

— W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM

You have to find it. No one else can find it for you.

— BJORN BORG

Memory is a marvelous thing—it enables you to remember a mistake each time you repeat it.

— MAX KAUFMAN

“Remember, no one can make you feel inferior without your consent.”

— ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

If thine enemy offend thee, give his child a drum.

— CHINESE CURSE

Always forgive your enemies; nothing annoys them so much.

— OSCAR WILDE

When the water reaches the upper level, follow the rats.

— CLAUDE SWANSON

It is better to die on your feet than to live on your knees.

— EMILIANO ZAPATA

“Death is not the greatest loss in life.

The greatest loss is what dies inside us while we live.”

— NORMAN COUSINS

Dying is a very dull, dreary affair.

And my advice to you is to have nothing whatever to do with it.

— W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM

That you may retain your self-respect, it is better to displease the people by doing what you know is right, than to temporarily please them by doing what you know is wrong.

— WILLIAM J. H. BOETCKER

It is amazing what you can accomplish if you do not care who gets the credit.

— HARRY S. TRUMAN

The only people with whom you should try to get even are those who have helped you.

— JOHN E. SOUTHARD

If we listened to our intellect, we'd never have a love affair. We'd never have a friendship. We'd never go into business, because we'd be too cynical. Well, that's nonsense. You've got to jump off the cliffs all the time and build your wings on the way down.

— ANNIE DILLARD

I must respect the opinions of others even if I disagree with them.

— HERBERT H. LEHMAN

“Good character is contagious; pass it on to others.”

— ANONYMOUS

It's lack of faith that makes people afraid of meeting challenges, and I believed in myself.

— MUHAMMAD ALI

“Play the hand you’re dealt.”

— ANONYMOUS

“Don’t look back. Something might be gaining on you.”

— SATCHEL PAIGE

The “uh-oh” moments are worth cherishing just as much as “ah-ha” moments: Mistakes, failures, embarrassments and disappointments are a necessary component of growing wise. We can learn more from our not-so-good experiences than we can learn from our good ones.

— SONIA SOTOMAYOR

There is a need for audacious hope.

— CORNELL WEST

If you do not tell the truth about yourself you cannot tell it about other people.

— VIRGINIA WOOLF

Don't waste your time thinking about who you ought to be; just be content with who you're becoming.

— ANONYMOUS

Be pleasant until ten o'clock in the morning and the rest of the day will take care of itself.

— ELBERT HUBBARD

At the end of your days, you will be judged by your gallop, not by your stumble.

— BRADLEY WHITFORD

Say yes.

— STEPHEN COLBERT

Failure can be awful. But living so cautiously that you never fail is worse.

— J. K. ROWLING

Think in the morning. Act in the noon.
Eat in the evening. Sleep in the night.

— WILLIAM BLAKE

Always go to other people's funerals, otherwise they won't come to yours.

— YOGI BERRA

“The first recipe for happiness is:
Avoid too lengthy meditation on the past.”

— ANDRÉ MAUROIS

You can only milk a cow so long,
and then you're left holding the pail.

— HANK AARON

It does no good to think moralistically about how much time we waste. Wasted time is usually good soul time.

— THOMAS MOORE

Never let your sense of morals get in the way of doing what's right.

—ISAAC ASIMOV

“Nothing ruins the truth like stretching it.”

—ANONYMOUS

•

Flattery won't hurt you if you don't swallow it.

—KIN (FRANK MCKINNEY) HUBBARD

•

“If you have enough butter, anything is good.”

—JULIA CHILD

“Life is uncertain. Eat dessert first.”

— ERNESTINE ULMER

•

One of these days in your travels, a guy is going to come up to you and show you a nice brand-new deck of cards on which the seal is not yet broken, and this guy is going to offer to bet you that he can make the Jack of Spades jump out of the deck and squirt cider in your ear. But, son, do not bet this man, for as sure as you are standing there, you are going to end up with an earful of cider.

“The best executive is the one who has sense enough to pick good men to do what he wants done, and self restraint enough to keep from meddling with them while they do it.”

— THEODORE ROOSEVELT

“A constructive, useful life, good works, and good relationships are as valid as writing poetry or inventing a machine. Anything that one does well and obtains satisfaction from is a good enough reason for living. To be a decent human being that people like and feel better for knowing is enough.”

— ROBERT GOULD

Great leaders are almost always great simplifiers, who can cut through argument, debate, and doubt to offer a solution everybody can understand.

— COLIN POWELL

Victory has a hundred fathers and defeat is an orphan.

— JOHN F. KENNEDY

Never ascribe to malice that which can adequately be explained by incompetence.

— NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

You have to learn to treat people as a resource. . . .
You have to ask not what do they cost, but what is the yield, what can they produce?

— PETER F. DRUCKER

A leader is not an administrator who loves to run others, but someone who carries water for his people so that they can get on with their jobs.

— ROBERT TOWNSEND

In matters of style, swim with the current;
in matters of principle, stand like a rock.

— THOMAS JEFFERSON

If you hear a voice within you say, “You cannot paint,” then by all means paint and that voice will be silenced.

— VINCENT VAN GOGH

Be nice to people on your way up because you'll meet them on your way down.

— WILSON MIZNER

Big doesn't necessarily mean better.
Sunflowers aren't better than violets.

— EDNA FERBER

Often you just have to rely on your intuition.

"Everyone is a genius at least once a year;
a real genius has his original ideas closer together."

— GEORG C. LICHTENBERG

Take your work seriously, but never yourself.

— MARGOT FONTEYN

Don't look at the problem. The more you look at problems, the more problems will come. Look for the solution.

— LISA PRAGNELLE

You have to learn the rules of the game—and then you have to play better than anyone else.

— DIANNE FEINSTEIN

Management is about arranging and telling.
Leadership is about nurturing and enhancing.

— TOM PETERS

No man will make a great leader who wants to do it all himself, or to get all the credit for doing it.

— ANDREW CARNEGIE

One of the tests of leadership is the ability to recognize a problem before it becomes an emergency.

— ARNOLD GLASOW

“Being responsible sometimes means pissing people off.”

— COLIN POWELL

Those who say it can’t be done are usually interrupted by others doing it.

— JAMES A. BALDWIN

To fulfill a dream, to be allowed to sweat over lonely labor, to be given a chance to create, is the meat and potatoes of life. The money is the gravy.

— BETTE DAVIS

The role of leadership is to transform the complex situation into small pieces and prioritize them.

— CARLOS GHOSN

A leader is a dealer in hope.

— NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

Management is doing things right; leadership is doing the right things.

— PETER F. DRUCKER

Enlightened leadership is spiritual if we understand spirituality not as some kind of religious dogma or ideology but as the domain of awareness where we experience values like truth, goodness, beauty, love and compassion, and also intuition, creativity, insight and focused attention.

— DEEPAK CHOPRA

If you don't have time to do it right, you must have time to do it over.

— ANONYMOUS

Take calculated risks. That is quite different from being rash.

— GEORGE S. PATTON

“Get action. Do things; be sane, don’t fritter away your time; create, act, take a place wherever you are and be somebody; get action. Seize the moment. Man was never intended to become an oyster.”

Quigley’s Law: Whoever has any authority over you, no matter how small, will attempt to use it.

— ANONYMOUS

“If you wish to know what a man is, place him in authority.”

— YUGOSLAV PROVERB

No pressure, no diamonds.

— MARY CASE

Do not confuse motion and progress. A rocking horse keeps moving but does not make any progress.

— ALFRED A. MONTAPERT

Average leaders raise the bar on themselves; good leaders raise the bar for others; great leaders inspire others to raise their own bar.

— ORRIN WOODWARD

He who has never learned to obey cannot be a good commander.

— ARISTOTLE

Problems are only opportunities in work clothes.

— HENRY J. KAISER

Leadership is not about a title or a designation. It's about impact, influence and inspiration. Impact involves getting results, influence is about spreading the passion you have for your work, and you have to inspire team-mates and customers.

— ROBIN S. SHARMA

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.

— JOHN C. MAXWELL

Life without industry is guilt, and industry without art is brutality.

— JOHN RUSKIN

You can't build a reputation on what you intend to do.

— LIZ SMITH

Work smarter, not harder—laziness is the mother of invention.

— REGINA REYNOLDS

“You never get a second chance to make a first impression.”

— ANONYMOUS

In short, the way to wealth, if you desire it, is as plain as the way to market. It depends chiefly on two words, industry and frugality; that is, waste neither time nor money, but make the best use of both.

•

A ruler should be slow to punish and swift to reward.

— OVID

The function of leadership is to produce more leaders, not more followers.

— RALPH NADER

Don't worry about people stealing your ideas. If your ideas are any good, you'll have to ram them down people's throats.

— HOWARD AIKEN

Excellence in any department can be attained only by the labor of a lifetime; it is not to be purchased at a lesser price.

— SAMUEL JOHNSON

If you want creative workers, give them enough time to play.

— JOHN CLEESE

If you break 100, watch your golf.

If you break 80, watch your business.

— JOEY ADAMS

Everyone has an invisible sign hanging from their neck saying, “Make me feel important.” Never forget this message when working with people.

— MARY KAY ASH

“Never say no when a client asks for something, even if it is the moon. You can always try, and anyhow, there is plenty of time afterwards to explain that it was not possible.”

— RICHARD M. NIXON

It's all to do with the training.

You can do a lot if you're properly trained.

— QUEEN ELIZABETH II

Education is the mother of leadership.

— WENDELL WILLKIE

I look for what needs to be done. After all, that's how the universe designs itself.

— R. BUCKMINSTER FULLER

I have always supported measures and principles and not men.

— DAVY CROCKETT

“My grandfather once told me that there were two kinds of people:
those who do the work and those who take the credit. He told me to try to be in the first group. There was much less competition.”

— INDIRA GANDHI

Every time you have to speak, you are auditioning for leadership.

— JAMES HUMES

You are not here merely to make a living. You are here in order to enable the world to live more amply, with greater vision, with a finer spirit of hope and achievement. You are here to enrich the world, and you impoverish yourself if you forget the errand.

— WOODROW WILSON

I can give you a six-word formula for success:
Think things through—then follow through.

— EDDIE RICKENBACKER

One of the tests of leadership is the ability to recognize a problem before it becomes an emergency.

— ARNOLD GLASOW

Becoming a leader is synonymous with becoming yourself.
It is precisely that simple and it is also that difficult.

— WARREN BENNIS

Wisdom is knowing what to do next, skill is knowing how to do it, and virtue is doing it.

— DAVID STAR JORDAN

Control is not leadership; management is not leadership; leadership is leadership. If you seek to lead, invest at least 50 percent of your time in leading yourself—your own purpose, ethics, principles, motivation, conduct. Invest at least 20 percent leading those with authority over you and 15 percent leading your peers.

— DEE HOCK

Leaders don't inflict pain, they share pain.

— MAX DEPREE

The art of leadership is saying no, not saying yes. It is very easy to say yes.

— TONY BLAIR

The highest of distinctions is service to others.

— KING GEORGE VI

If you're not sure where you are going, you're liable to end up someplace else.

— ROBERT F. MAGER

Anyone can hold the helm when the sea is calm.

— PUBLILIUS SYRUS

Become the kind of leader that people would follow voluntarily, even if you had no title or position.

— BRIAN TRACY

A leader is not an administrator who loves to run others, but someone who carries water for his people so that they can get on with their jobs.

— ROBERT TOWNSEND

Leadership cannot really be taught. It can only be learned.

— HAROLD GENEEN

Look over your shoulder now and then to be sure someone's following you.

— HENRY GILMER

You cannot be a leader, and ask other people to follow you, unless you know how to follow, too.

— SAM RAYBURN

It's hard to lead a cavalry charge if you think you look funny on a horse.

— ADLAI E. STEVENSON II

A leader is a dealer in hope.

— NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

The leaders who offer blood, toil, tears and sweat always get more out of their followers than those who offer safety and a good time. When it comes to the pinch, human beings are heroic.

— GEORGE ORWELL

A leader takes people where they want to go. A great leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go, but ought to be.

— ROSALYNN CARTER

A leader is best when people barely know he exists, when his work is done, his aim fulfilled, they will say: we did it ourselves.

— LAO TZU

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.

— JOHN QUINCY ADAMS

A leader is like a shepherd. He stays behind the flock, letting the most nimble go out ahead, whereupon the others follow, not realizing that all along they are being directed from behind.

— NELSON MANDELA

He who has never learned to obey cannot be a good commander.

— ARISTOTLE

Earn your leadership every day.

— MICHAEL JORDAN

Leadership is lifting a person's vision to high sights, the raising of a person's performance to a higher standard, the building of a personality beyond its normal limitations.

— PETER DRUCKER

If you think you are leading and turn around to see no one following, then you are just taking a walk.

— BENJAMIN HOOKS

A man who wants to lead the orchestra must turn his back on the crowd.

— MAX LUCADO

A cowardly leader is the most dangerous of men.

— STEVEN KING

Outstanding leaders go out of their way to boost the self-esteem of their personnel. If people believe in themselves, it's amazing what they can accomplish.

— SAM WALTON

Chapter Four

Love What You Are Doing

{Advice on Success—and the Money that Sometimes Comes with It}

Anyone can be a millionaire, but to become a billionaire you need an astrologer. Keep your eyes on the stars, learn from the best.

— JOHN PIERPONT MORGAN

Rule No.1: Never lose money. Rule No.2: Never forget rule No.1.

— WARREN BUFFETT

Success is not the key to happiness.

Happiness is the key to success.

If you love what you are doing, you will be successful.

— ALBERT SCHWEITZER

Love what you do. Get good at it. Competence is a rare commodity in this day and age. And let the chips fall where they may.

— JON STEWART

You can have it all. You just can't have it all at one time.

— OPRAH WINFREY

Financial independence is paramount. My mom always says that when a woman is financially independent, she has the ability to live life on her own terms. I think that was the soundest advice that I ever got. No matter where you go in life or who you get married to, you have to be financially independent—whether you use it or not.

— PRIYANKA CHOPRA

Do not be embarrassed by your failures, learn from them and start again.

— RICHARD BRANSON

“A true measure of your worth includes all the benefits others have gained from your success.”

— CULLEN HIGHTOWER

A strong, positive self-image is the best possible preparation for success.

— DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambitions.
Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great.

— MARK TWAIN

Instead of thinking about where you are, think about where you want to be. It takes twenty years of hard work to become an overnight success.

— DIANA RANKIN

Money and success don't change people; they merely amplify what is already there.

— WILL SMITH

Failure isn't fatal, but failure to change might be.

— JOHN WOODEN

Everything you want is on the other side of fear.

— JACK CANFIELD

“If one advances confidently in the direction of one's dreams, and endeavors to live the life which one has imagined, one will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.”

— HENRY DAVID THOREAU

Try not to become a person of success, but rather try to become a person of value.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

It is not the strongest of the species that survive, nor the most intelligent, but the one most responsive to change.

— CHARLES DARWIN

Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people.

— ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Don't aim for success if you want it; just do what you love and believe in, and it will come naturally.

— DAVID FROST

Look at the real successes, the people who make a lot more money than you—Elton John, Captain Kangaroo, anybody from Saudi Arabia, Big Bird, and so on. They all dress funny—and they all succeed. Are you catching on?

— DAVE BARRY

Part of the secret of a success in life is to eat what you like and let the food fight it out inside.

— MARK TWAIN

Formula for success: Underpromise and overdeliver.

— TOM PETERS

Only those who dare to fail greatly can ever achieve greatly.

— ROBERT F. KENNEDY

There are no secrets to success. It is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure.

— COLIN POWELL

I can accept failure, everyone fails at something.

But I can't accept not trying.

— MICHAEL JORDAN

“The test of a successful person is not an ability to eliminate all problems before they arise, but to meet and work out difficulties when they do arise. We must be willing to make an intelligent compromise with perfection lest we wait forever before taking action. It’s still good advice to cross bridges as we come to them.”

— DAVID JOSEPH SCHWARTZ

Successful leaders make sure that they succeed! They are not afraid of strength in others. Andrew Carnegie wanted to put on his gravestone, “Here lies a man who knew how to put into his service more able men than he was himself.”

— PETER F. DRUCKER

The successful warrior is the average man, with laser-like focus.

— BRUCE LEE

Keep on going, and the chances are that you will stumble on something, perhaps when you are least expecting it. I never heard of anyone ever stumbling on something sitting down.

If you set your goals ridiculously high and it's a failure, you will fail above everyone else's success.

— JAMES CAMERON

“Success usually comes to those who are too busy to be looking for it.”

— HENRY DAVID THOREAU

Entrepreneurs average 3.8 failures before final success. What sets the successful ones apart is their amazing persistence.

— LISA M. AMOS

If you are not willing to risk the usual, you will have to settle for the ordinary.

— JIM Rohn

Take up one idea. Make that one idea your life—think of it, dream of it, live on that idea. Let the brain, muscles, nerves, every part of your body, be full of that idea, and just leave every other idea alone. This is the way to success.

— SWAMI VIVEKANANDA

“How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving, and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these.”

— GEORGE WASHINGTON CARVER

Resentment is one burden that is incompatible with your success.

Always be the first to forgive; and forgive yourself first always.

— DAN ZADRA

Six essential qualities that are the key to success: sincerity, personal integrity, humility, courtesy, wisdom, charity.

— WILLIAM MENNINGER

The only failure is not to try.

— GEORGE CLOONEY

“If at first you do succeed, try to hide your astonishment.”

— ANONYMOUS

Success and rest don't sleep together.

•

All our dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them.

— WALT DISNEY

“He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has enjoyed the trust of pure women, the respect of intelligent men, and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of Earth’s beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given them the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benediction.”

— BETTY ANDERSON STANLEY

(often attributed in a somewhat different form to Ralph Waldo Emerson)

Here’s what would be pitiful . . .
if your income grew and you didn’t.

— JIM ROHN

With money in your pocket, you are wise and you are handsome and you sing well too.

— YIDDISH PROVERB

Success? I don't know what that word means. I'm happy. But success, that goes back to what in somebody's eyes success means.

For me, success is inner peace. That's a good day for me.

— DENZEL WASHINGTON

“People who work sitting down get paid more than people who work standing up.”

— OGDEN NASH

Dishonest money dwindles away, but he who gathers money little by little makes it grow.

— PROVERBS 13:11

Remember that money is of the prolific, generating nature. Money can beget money, and its offspring can beget more, and so on.

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

The best revenge is massive success.

— FRANK SINATRA

I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work.

— THOMAS EDISON

A successful man is one who can lay a firm foundation with the bricks others have thrown at him.

— DAVID BRINKLEY

Try not to become a man of success, but rather try to become a man of value.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

Always bear in mind that your own resolution to success is more important than any other one thing.

— ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Successful and unsuccessful people do not vary greatly in their abilities. They vary in their desires to reach their potential.

— JOHN C. MAXWELL

Double your rate of failure. You are thinking of failure as the enemy of success. But it isn't at all. You can be discouraged by failure or you can learn from it, so go ahead and make mistakes. Make all you can. Because remember that's where you will find success.

— THOMAS J. WATSON

Logic will get you from A to B.
Imagination will take you everywhere.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

“Money often costs too much.”

— RALPH WALDO EMERSON

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

— TIMOTHY 6:10

You cannot motivate the best people with money.
Money is just a way to keep score. The best people in any field are motivated by passion.

— ERIC S. RAYMOND

If you want to know what a man is really like, notice how he acts when he loses money.

— SPANISH PROVERB

No one can make you feel inferior without your consent.

— ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

The whole secret of a successful life is to find out what is one's destiny to do, and then do it.

Our greatest fear should not be of failure . . . but of succeeding at things in life that don't really matter.

— FRANCIS CHAN

Always borrow money from a pessimist.
He doesn't expect to be paid back.

— ANONYMOUS

If you don't design your own life plan, chances are you'll fall into someone else's plan. And guess what they have planned for you? Not much.

— JIM ROHN

Nobody ever wrote down a plan to be broke, fat, lazy, or stupid.
Those things are what happen when you don't have a plan.

— LARRY WINGET

Be patient with yourself. Self-growth is tender; it's holy ground. There's no greater investment.

—STEPHEN R. COVEY

I owe my success to having listened respectfully to the very best advice, and then going away and doing the exact opposite.

—GILBERT K. CHESTERTON

Be content to act, and leave the talking to others.

—BALTASAR

The greater the artist, the greater the doubt. Perfect confidence is granted to the less talented as a consolation prize.

—ROBERT HUGHES

What would you attempt to do if you knew you would not fail?

— ROBERT SCHULLER

Remember this saying, “The good paymaster is lord of another man’s purse.” He that is known to pay punctually and exactly to the time he promises may at any time and on any occasion raise all the money his friends can spare.

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Where large sums of money are concerned, it is advisable to trust nobody.

— AGATHA CHRISTIE

Aim for success, not perfection. Never give up your right to be wrong, because then you will lose the ability to learn new things and move forward with your life. Remember that fear always lurks behind perfectionism.

— DAVID M. BURNS

It is better to fail in originality than to succeed in imitation.

— HERMAN MELVILLE

I cannot give you the formula for success, but I can give you the formula for failure, which is: Try to please everybody.

— HERBERT SWOPE

Screw it, let's just do it.

— RICHARD BRANSON

The ones who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones that do.

— ANONYMOUS

Success seems to be connected with action. Successful people keep moving. They make mistakes, but they don't quit.

— CONRAD HILTON

The difference between who you are and who you want to be is what you do.

— UNKNOWN

I failed my way to success.

— THOMAS EDISON

Keep on going, and the chances are that you will stumble on something, perhaps when you are least expecting it. I never heard of anyone ever stumbling on something sitting down.

— CHARLES F. KETTERING

Arriving at one goal is the starting point to another.

— JOHN DEWEY

If the highest aim of a captain were to preserve his ship, he would keep it in port forever.

— THOMAS AQUINAS

Life is like a dogsled team. If you ain't the lead dog, the scenery never changes.

—LEWIS GRIZZARD

The very essence of leadership is that you have to have vision.
You can't blow an uncertain trumpet.

—THEODORE M. HESBURGH

Always drink upstream from the herd.

—WILL ROGERS

Success in almost any field depends more on energy and drive than it does on intelligence. This explains why we have so many stupid leaders.

—SLOAN WILSON

When I finally got a management position, I found out how hard it is to lead and manage people.

Bait with Your Heart

{Advice on Friendship, Love, Marriage, and Other Such Mysteries}

— KURT VONNEGUT

— MARILYN MONROE

— MARK TWAIN

—DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

You'll never forget your first lover, so try to make it someone you won't regret thinking about for the rest of your life.

— DR. RUTH WESTHEIMER

All you need is love. But a little chocolate now and then doesn't hurt.

— CHARLES SCHULZ

“Never play cards with a man called Doc.

Never eat at a place called Mom's.

Never sleep with a woman whose troubles are worse than your own.”

— NELSON ALGREN

You know it's love when all you want is that person to be happy, even if you're not part of their happiness.

— JULIA ROBERTS

Do not walk behind me; I may not lead. Do not walk in front of me; I may not follow. Walk beside me, that we may be as one.

— UTE SAYING

For marriage to be a success, every woman and every man should have her and his own bathroom. The end.

— CATHERINE ZETA-JONES

“Keep your eyes wide open before marriage, half shut afterwards.”

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Love takes off masks that we fear we cannot live without and know we cannot live within.

— JAMES BALDWIN

As long as you know that most men are like children, you know everything.

•

The quickest way to know a woman is to go shopping with her.

— MARCELENE COX

By all means, marry. If you get a good wife, you'll become happy; if you get a bad one, you'll become a philosopher.

— SOCRATES

Love yourself first and everything else falls into line. You really have to love yourself to get anything done in this world.

— LUCILLE BALL

The most important thing in life is to learn how to give out love, and to let it come in.

— MORRIE SCHWARTZ

Never advise anyone to go to war or to marry.

— SPANISH PROVERB

In buying a horse and taking a wife, shut your eyes and commend yourself to God.

— ITALIAN PROVERB

“Never close your lips to those whom you have opened your heart.”

— CHARLES DICKENS

The quality of a relationship is a function of the extent to which it is built on a solid underlying friendship and meets the needs of the two people involved.

— DR. PHIL MCGRAW

If I know what love is, it is because of you.

— HERMAN HESSE

I love you not because of who you are, but because of who I am when I am with you.

— ROY CROFT

Love is a friendship set to music.

— JOSEPH CAMPBELL

“It doesn’t matter if the guy is perfect or the girl is perfect, as long as they are perfect for each other.”

— FROM THE FILM *GOOD WILL HUNTING

(Matt Damon and Ben Affleck, screenwriters)

’Tis better to have loved and lost
Than never to have loved at all.

— ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

A successful marriage is an edifice that must be rebuilt every day.

— ANDRÉ MAUROIS

We are shaped and fashioned by what we love.

— JOHANN WOLFGANG VON GOETHE

The way to love anything is to realize that it may be lost.

•

It takes courage to love, but pain through love is the purifying fire which those who love generously know. We all know people who are so much afraid of pain that they shut themselves up like clams in a shell and, giving out nothing, receive nothing and therefore shrink until life is a mere living death.

•

Love sought is good, but given unsought, is better.

— OLIVIA, FROM TWELFTH NIGHT,
WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

He was my North, my South, my East and West,
My working week and my Sunday rest,
My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song;
I thought that love would last forever: I was wrong.

— W. H. AUDEN

We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh.

— AGNES REPPLIER

“Love is like a flower: Once you pick it, it slowly dies.”

— ANONYMOUS

“If you want to sacrifice the admiration of many men for the criticism of one, go ahead, get married.”

— KATHARINE HEPBURN

You can rehearse a wedding but not a marriage.

— AL BATT

•

Don't brood. Get on with living and loving. You don't have forever.

— LEO BUSCAGLIA

Your task is not to seek for love, but merely to seek and find all the barriers within yourself that you have built against it.

— RUMI

Love is of all passions the strongest, for it attacks simultaneously the head, the heart and the senses.

— LAO-TZU

Never pretend to a love which you do not actually feel, for love is not ours to command.

— ALAN WATTS

“Once the realization is accepted that even between the closest human beings infinite distances continue, a wonderful living side by side can grow, if they succeed in loving the distance between them which makes it possible for each to see the other whole against the sky.”

— RAINER MARIA RILKE

I’m old-fashioned and a square. I believe people should not engage in sex too early. They will never forget that first sexual experience, and it would be a pity to just throw it away. So what’s the rush? Hug and kiss and neck and pet, and don’t rush into a sexual encounter.

— DR. RUTH WESTHEIMER

It is better to be looked over than overlooked.

— MAE WEST

“Do not let too strong a light come into your bedroom.
There are in a beauty a great many things which are enhanced by being seen only in a half-light.”

— OVID

At the touch of love everyone becomes a poet.

— PLATO

•

If I had a flower for every time I thought of you . . .

I could walk through my garden forever.

— ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

It doesn't make any difference what you do in the bedroom as long as you don't do it in the street and frighten the horses.

— MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL

The best and most beautiful things in this world cannot be seen or even heard, but must be felt with the heart.

— HELEN KELLER

Keep love in your heart. A life without it is like a sunless garden when the flowers are dead.

— OSCAR WILDE

I believe that love cannot be bought except with love.

— JOHN STEINBECK

Marriage has no guarantees. If that's what you're looking for, go live with a car battery.

— ERMA BOMBECK

Immature love says: "I love you because I need you."

Mature love says: "I need you because I love you."

— ERICH FROMM

You know you're in love when you don't want to fall asleep because reality is finally better than your dreams.

— DR. SEUSS (THEODOR GEISEL)

Life without love is like a tree without blossoms or fruit.

— KHALIL GIBRAN

“Love is everything it’s cracked up to be . . .
It really is worth fighting for, being brave for, risking everything for.”

— ERICA JONG

For women the best aphrodisiacs are words. The G-spot is in the ears. He who looks for it below there is wasting his time.

— ISABEL ALLENDE

I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too great a burden to bear.

— MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

We are most alive when we’re in love.

— JOHN UPDIKE

A kiss is a lovely trick designed by nature to stop speech when words become superfluous.

— INGRID BERGMAN

All married couples should learn the art of battle as they should learn the art of making love. Good battle is objective and honest, never vicious or cruel. Good battle is healthy and constructive, and brings to a marriage the principle of equal partnership.

— ANN LANDERS

When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, a hundred.

— THOMAS JEFFERSON

Love is a better teacher than duty.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

True love comes quietly, without banners or flashing lights. If you hear bells, get your ears checked.

— ERICH SEGAL

Every person has to love at least one bad partner in their lives to be truly thankful for the right one.

— UNKNOWN

“When angry, count to four; when very angry, swear.”

— MARK TWAIN

While forbidden fruit is said to taste sweeter, it usually spoils faster.

— ABIGAIL VAN BUREN (“DEAR ABBY”)

Don't criticize in the sack. Discuss constructively later.

If you think marriage is going to be perfect, you're probably still at your reception.

— MARTHA BOLTON

"Remember, we all stumble, every one of us.
That's why it's a comfort to go hand in hand."

— EMILY KIMBROUGH

Friendship . . . is not something you learn in school.
But if you haven't learned the meaning of friendship, you really haven't learned anything.

— MUHAMMAD ALI

Fortune and love favor the brave.

— OVID

Love never dies a natural death. It dies because we don't know how to replenish its source.

It dies of blindness and errors and betrayals.

It dies of illness and wounds; it dies of weariness, of witherings, of tarnishings.

— ANAÏS NIN

If you live to be a hundred, I want to live to be a hundred minus one day so I never have to live without you.

— A. A. MILNE

A true apology is more than just acknowledgment of a mistake. It is recognition that something you have said or done has damaged a relationship and that you care enough about the relationship to want it repaired and restored.

—NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Grief can take care of itself, but to get the full value of a joy you must have somebody to divide it with.

—MARK TWAIN

If you can, help others; if you cannot do that, at least do not harm them.

—TENZIN GYATSO, 14TH DALAI LAMA

“Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together.”

— WOODROW WILSON

The most important thing in life is giving back.

— MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG

I’ll tell you the same thing my mother used to tell me:

“The most important thing in life is to try to do the very best for your neighbors. Respect other people.”

— HANK AARON

Be respectful to others as you grow . . . If we lack respect for one group, then there is a tendency for that attitude to spread. It becomes infectious and no one becomes safe from the ravages of prejudice.

— WALTER ANNENBERG

Distrust all those who love you extremely upon a very slight acquaintance and without any visible reason.

“Thy friend has a friend, and thy friend’s friend has a friend; be discreet.”

— THE TALMUD

•

Every human being has value. This is the basis of all healthy relationships. Through living each day as it is given to me, I’ve learned that. It cannot be “taught,” but it can be “caught” from those who live their lives right along with us.

— FRED ROGERS (“MR. ROGERS”)

The real test of friendship is:
can you literally do nothing with the other person?
Can you enjoy those moments of life that are utterly simple?

— EUGENE KENNEDY

Santa Claus has the right idea. Visit people only once a year.

— VICTOR BORGE

“Laughter is not at all a bad beginning for a friendship, and it is far the best ending for one.”

— OSCAR WILDE

Do not keep on with a mockery of friendship after the substance is gone—but part, while you can part friends. Bury the carcass of friendship: it is not worth embalming.

— WILLIAM HAZLITT

Some people think only intellect counts: knowing how to solve problems, knowing how to get by, knowing how to identify an advantage and seize it. But the functions of intellect are insufficient without courage, love, friendship, compassion, and empathy.

— DEAN KOONTZ

“All love that has not friendship for its base, is like a mansion built upon the sand.”

— ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

You shall judge a man by his foes as well as by his friends.

— JOSEPH CONRAD

“It takes a long time to grow an old friend.”

— JOHN LEONARD

—ELIZABETH DUNPHY

— PAUL TILLICH

— ANONYMOUS

— BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

I tell you, the more I think, the more I feel that there is nothing more truly artistic than to love people.

—VINCENT VAN GOGH

Hatred paralyzes life; love releases it.
Hatred confuses life; love harmonizes it.
Hatred darkens life; love illuminates it.

—MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

Love doesn't just sit there, like a stone;
it has to be made, like bread, remade all the time, made new.

—URSULA K. LE GUIN

Love is not enough. It must be the foundation, the cornerstone—but not the complete structure. It is much too pliable, too yielding.

— BETTE DAVIS

Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier.

— MOTHER TERESA

Never miss an opportunity to make others happy, even if you have to leave them alone in order to do it.

— ANONYMOUS

“Always be nice to your children, because they are the ones who will choose your rest home.”

— PHYLLIS DILLER

Never raise your hand to your kids.

It leaves your groin unprotected.

Always serve too much hot fudge sauce on hot fudge sundaes.

It makes people overjoyed, and puts them in your debt.

— JUDITH OLNEY

•

“There is no remedy for love but to love more.”

— HENRY DAVID THOREAU

It is not self-sacrifice to die protecting that which you value:

If the value is great enough, you do not care to exist without it. This applies to any alleged sacrifice for those one loves.

— AYN RAND

Love one another and you will be happy.

It's as simple and as difficult as that.

—MICHAEL LEUNIG

The truth is that there is only one terminal dignity—love. And the story of a love is not important—what is important is that one is capable of love. It is perhaps the only glimpse we are permitted of eternity.

—HELEN HAYES

“You have to love your children unselfishly.
That's hard. But it's the only way.”

—BARBARA BUSH

If someone is too tired to give you a smile, leave one of your own, because no one needs a smile as much as those who have none to give.

— RABBI SAMSON HIRSCH

Love yourself first and everything else falls into line. You really have to love yourself to get anything done in this world.

— LUCILLE BALL

The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother.

— THEODORE M. HESBURGH

“The most important things to do in the world are to get something to eat, something to drink, and somebody to love you.”

“Assist the reduced fellow man, either by a considerable gift or a sum of money or by teaching him a trade or by putting him in the way of business so that he may earn an honest livelihood and not be forced to the dreadful alternative of holding out his hand for charity. This is the highest step and summit of charity’s golden ladder.”

— MOSES MAIMONIDES

•

“If you have only one smile in you, give it to the people you love. Don’t be surly at home, then go out in the street and start grinning ‘Good morning’ at total strangers.”

— MAYA ANGELOU

We love the things we love for what they are.

— ROBERT FROST

Only time can heal your broken heart, just as only time can heal his broken arms and legs.

— MISS PIGGY

It's better to be unhappy alone than unhappy with someone.

— MARILYN MONROE

The greater your capacity to love, the greater your capacity to feel the pain.

— JENNIFER ANISTON

Hearts will never be practical until they are made unbreakable.

— WIZARD OF OZ

To be brave is to love unconditionally without expecting anything in return.

— MADONNA

You don't marry someone you can live with—you marry the person who you cannot live without.

— UNKNOWN

Love is just a word, but you bring it definition.

— EMINEM

When you break up, your whole identity is shattered. It's like death.

— DENNIS QUAID

And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you make.

— PAUL MCCARTNEY

Love is composed of a single soul inhabiting two bodies.

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; Forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; Be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies; Succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; Be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; Build anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; Be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; Do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; Give the world the best you have got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; It was never between you and them anyway.

Throw Your Dreams

{Advice to Inspire and Encourage} Your greatest fears are created by your imagination. Don't give in to them.

•

Get a cocktail shaker.

— JOSÉ ANDRÉS

•

Ban self-doubt.

— JENNIFER LEE

•

You can't connect the dots looking forward.

— STEVE JOBS

The world is more malleable than you think.

— BONO

Throw your dreams into space like a kite, and you do not know what it will bring back;
a new life, a new friend, a new love, a new country.

— ANAÏS NIN

If you can dream it, you can do it.

— WALT DISNEY

We must accept finite disappointment, but we must never lose infinite hope.

— MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

We must embrace pain and burn it as fuel for our journey.

— KENJI MIYAZAWA

One of the things I learned the hard way was that it doesn't pay to get discouraged. Keeping busy and making optimism a way of life can restore your faith in yourself.

Be yourself. The world worships the original.

Be careful what you set your heart upon—for it will surely be yours.

— JAMES BALDWIN

What counts can't always be counted; what can be counted doesn't always count.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

The secret of life is in opening up your heart.

— CHITA RIVERA

Sometimes our light goes out, but is blown again into instant flame by an encounter with another human being.

— ALBERT SCHWEITZER

You can learn new things at any time in your life if you're willing to be a beginner. If you actually learn to like being a beginner, the whole world opens up to you.

— BARBARA SHER

“Don’t be a blueprint.

Be an original.”

— ROY ACUFF

Most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no hope at all.

— DALE CARNEGIE

I slept and dreamt that life was joy. I awoke and saw that life was service. I acted and behold, service was joy.

— RABINDRANATH TAGORE

We should always pray for help, but we should always listen for inspiration and impression to proceed in ways different from those we may have thought of.

— JOHN H. GROBERG

A problem is a chance for you to do your best.

— DUKE ELLINGTON

When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it.

— HENRY FORD

Indulge your imagination in every possible flight.

— JANE AUSTEN

Only those who will risk going too far can possibly find out how far one can go.

— T. S. ELIOT

Life is good only when it is magical and musical, a perfect timing and consent, and when we do not anatomise it. You must treat the days respectfully . . . You must hear the bird's song without attempting to render it into nouns and verbs.

— RALPH WALDO EMERSON

•

“A ship in port is safe, but that's not what ships are built for.”

— GRACE HOPPER

Disappointment should be cremated, not embalmed.

— HENRY S. HASKINS

When one door closes, another opens; but we often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us.

— HELEN KELLER

Obstacles don't have to stop you. If you run into a wall, don't turn around and give up. Figure out how to climb it, go through it, or work around it.

— MICHAEL JORDAN

Problems are not stop signs, they are guidelines.

— ROBERT SCHULLER

“A man, as a general rule, owes very little to what he is born with—a man is what he makes of himself.”

—ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL

Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you’ll land among the stars.

—LES BROWN

Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising up every time we fail.

—RALPH WALDO EMERSON

Those who contemplate the beauty of the earth find reserves of strength that will endure as long as life lasts.

—RACHEL CARSON

Hope is important because it can make the present moment less difficult to bear. If we believe that tomorrow will be better, we can bear a hardship today.

— THICH NHAT HANH

The difference between stumbling blocks and stepping stones is how you use them.

— UNKNOWN

“The most worthwhile thing is to try to put happiness into the lives of others.”

— SIR ROBERT BADEN-POWELL

“Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, those ripples build a current that can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance.”

— ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Resolve to be thyself: and know, that he who finds himself, loses his misery.

— MATTHEW ARNOLD

Always remember that the future comes one day at a time.

— DEAN ACHESON

For the past thirty-three years, I have looked in the mirror every morning and asked myself, “If today were the last day of my life, would I want to do what I am about to do today?”

And whenever the answer has been “No” for too many days in a row, I know I need to change something.

— STEVE JOBS

Quit now, you’ll never make it. If you disregard this advice, you’ll be halfway there.

— DAVID ZUCKER

“There are only two lasting legacies we can hope to give our children. One of these is roots; the other, wings.”

— HODDING CARTER

We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.

— WINSTON CHURCHILL

Next to trying and winning, the best thing is trying and failing.

— L. M. MONTGOMERY

The only true gift is a portion of yourself.

— RALPH WALDO EMERSON

“Waste no more time arguing what a good man should be. Be one.”

— MARCUS AURELIUS

Do something for somebody every day for which you do not get paid.

— ALBERT SCHWEITZER

Only a life lived in the service of others is worth living.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

“Remember always that you have not only the right to be an individual, you have an obligation to be one. You cannot make any useful contribution in life unless you do this.”

— ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Just as despair can come to one only from other human beings, hope, too, can be given to one only by other human beings.

— ELIE WEISEL

The greatest glory in living lies not in never failing, but in rising every time we fail.

— NELSON MANDELA

In times of great stress or adversity, it's always best to keep busy, to plow your anger and your energy into something positive.

— LEE IACOCCA

Thank God—every morning when you get up—that you have something to do which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you a hundred virtues which the idle will never know.

— CHARLES KINGSLEY

Be yourself.

Who else is better qualified?

— FRANK J. GIBLIN II

Life consists not in holding good cards but in playing those you hold well.

— JOSH BILLINGS

It is only in our darkest hours that we may discover the true strength of the brilliant light within ourselves that can never, ever, be dimmed.

— DOE ZANTAMATA

If it's not exactly like you thought it would be, you think it's a failure. What about the spectrum of colors in between.

— SARA EVANS

Use what you've been through as fuel, believe in yourself and be unstoppable!

— YVONNE PIERRE

Don't be afraid your life will end; be afraid that it will never begin.

— GRACE HANSEN

Begin doing what you want to do now. We are not living in eternity. We have only this moment, sparkling like a star in our hand—and melting like a snowflake.

— SIR FRANCIS BACON

The best remedy for those who are afraid, lonely, or unhappy is to go outside, somewhere where they can be quiet, alone with the heavens, nature and God.

— ANNE FRANK

Tranquility is like quicksilver. The harder you grab for it, the less likely you will grasp it.

— BERN WILLIAMS

•

“Three grand essentials to happiness in this life are something

— JOSEPH ADDISON

To give pleasure to a single heart by a single kind act is better than a thousand headbowings in prayer.

— SAADI

There are three ingredients to the good life:
learning, earning, and yearning.

— CHRISTOPHER MORLEY

It is difficult to steer a parked car, so get moving.

— HENRIETTA MEARS

Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire called conscience.

— GEORGE WASHINGTON

There is a way to look at the past. Don't hide from it. It will not catch you if you don't repeat it.

— PEARL BAILEY

“You must learn day by day, year by year, to broaden your horizon. The more things you love, the more you are interested in, the more you enjoy, the more you are indignant about, the more you have left when anything happens.”

— ETHEL BARRYMORE

Better keep yourself clean and bright; you are the window through which you must see the world.

— GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

Seize the moment. Remember all those women on the Titanic who waved off the dessert cart.

— ERMA BOMBICK

To help yourself, help others. Whatever good you do travels a circle and returns to you many times over—but remember, life isn't about what you get, it's about what you become.

— DENNIS GASKILL

“Look up and not down. Look forward and not back.
Look out and not in, and lend a hand.”

— EDWARD EVERETT HALE

It is folly for a man to pray to the gods for that which he has the power to obtain by himself.

— EPICURUS

Dwell not on the past. Use it to illustrate a point, then leave it behind. Nothing really matters except what you do now in this instant of time. From this moment onwards you can be an entirely different person, filled with love and understanding, ready with an outstretched hand, uplifted and positive in every thought and deed.

— EILEEN CADDY

Your children need your presence more than your presents.

— JESSE JACKSON

You must be the change you wish to see in the world.

— MOHANDAS GANDHI

Do, or do not. There is no “try.”

— YODA, THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK

(screenplay by Leigh Brackett and Lawrence Kasdan)

Everybody can be great . . . because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. . . . You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.

“Whenever you feel the need or wish to cheer yourself, think about all of the good qualities of those around you—the energy of one, for instance, the modesty of another, the generosity of a third, and some other gift of a fourth. For nothing is ever so cheering as the images of the qualities shining through in the character of those who live with us. . . . Have these images then ever before your eyes.”

— MARCUS AURELIUS

Treat a man as if he were what he ought to be and you help him become what he is capable of being.

— JOHANN VON GOETHE

Don't compromise yourself.

You're all you've got.

— JANIS JOPLIN

Carry out a random act of kindness, with no expectation of reward, safe in the knowledge that one day someone might do the same for you.

— PRINCESS DIANA

Do not look where you fell, but where you slipped.

— ANONYMOUS

“God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.”

— DR. REINHOLD NIEBUHR
[THE SERENITY PRAYER]

If your daily life seems poor, do not blame it; blame yourself, tell yourself that you are not poet enough to call forth its riches.

— RAINER MARIA RILKE

Share and save the world.

— MAITREYA

“Act the way you’d like to be and soon you’ll be the way you act.”

— GEORGE W. CRANE

I learned there are troubles of more than one kind. Some come from ahead, others come from behind. But I've bought a big bat. I'm all ready, you see. Now my troubles are going to have trouble with me.

— DR. SEUSS (THEODOR GEISEL)

In three words I can sum up everything I've learned about life. It goes on.

— ROBERT FROST

If you want a quality, act as if you already had it.

— WILLIAM JAMES

Jack Kennedy always said to me, “Hedy, get involved.

That’s the secret of life. Try everything.

Join everything. Meet everybody.”

— HEDY LAMARR

If you really want something in this life, you have to work for it.

Now, quiet, they’re about to announce the lottery numbers!

— HOMER SIMPSON, THE SIMPSONS,

MATT GROENING

Believe that life is worth living and your belief will help create the fact.

— WILLIAM JAMES

Have great hopes and dare to go all out for them.
Have great dreams and dare to live them. Have tremendous expectations and believe in them.

— NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Things turn out the best for the people who make the best of the way things turn out.

— JOHN WOODEN

If you pray for a Cadillac and God sends a jackass, ride it.

— ANONYMOUS

Know yourself. Don't accept your dog's admiration as conclusive evidence that you are wonderful.

— ANN LANDERS

The best way to get rid of the pain is to feel the pain. And when you feel the pain and go beyond it, you'll see there's a very intense love that is wanting to awaken itself.

— DEEPAK CHOPRA

Man is fond of counting his troubles but he does not count his joys. If he counted them up, as he ought to, he would see that every lot has enough happiness provided for it.

— FYODOR DOSTOEVSKY

Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter, and those who matter don't mind.

— DR. SEUSS (THEODOR GEISEL)

Don't wait for the last judgment—it takes place every day.

— ALBERT CAMUS

Remember your humanity, and forget the rest.

— BERTRAND RUSSELL

When things are bad, we take comfort in the thought that they could always get worse. And when they are, we find hope in the thought that things are so bad they have to get better.

— MALCOLM FORBES

He knows not his own strength who hath not met adversity.

— WILLIAM SAMUEL JOHNSON

Look at a day when you are supremely satisfied at the end.
It's not a day when you lounge around doing nothing; it's when you've had everything to do, and you've done it.

— LORD ACTON

“Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could; some blunders and absurdities have crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; you shall begin it serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.”

— RALPH WALDO EMERSON

You can't wait for inspiration. You have to go after it with a club.

— JACK LONDON

Life is like photography. You need the negatives to develop.

— UNKNOWN

Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself.

— GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

Never be bullied into silence. Never allow yourself to be made a victim. Accept no one's definition of your life; define yourself.

— HARVEY FIERSTEIN

The price of anything is the amount of life you exchange for it.

— HENRY DAVID THOREAU

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.

— MARK TWAIN

Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds you plant.

— ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Chapter Seven

Hit the Right Keys

{Advice on Creativity and the Arts}

The arts are not a way to make a living. They are a very human way of making life more bearable. Practicing an art, no matter how well or badly, is a way to make your soul grow, for heaven's sake.

— KURT VONNEGUT

There's nothing remarkable about it. All one has to do is hit the right keys at the right time and the instrument plays itself.

— JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

“When in doubt, make a fool of yourself. There is a microscopically thin line between being brilliantly creative and acting like the most gigantic idiot on earth. So what the hell, leap!”

— CYNTHIA HEIMEL

Creativity is allowing yourself to make mistakes.

Art is knowing which ones to keep.

— SCOTT ADAMS

Curiosity is the key to creativity.

— AKIO MORITA

If you want to work on your art, work on your life.

— ANTON CHEKHOV

Find a need and fill it.

— RUTH STAFFORD PEALE

A long walk and grooming with a well-mannered dog is a Zen experience that leaves you refreshed and in a creative frame of mind.

— DEAN KOONTZ

You can't depend on your eyes when your imagination is out of focus.

— MARK TWAIN

Marry an English major and get a good editor.

— STEPHEN AMBROSE

— LEONARDO DA VINCI

When a thing has been said, and said well, have no scruple. Take it and copy it.

— ANATOLE FRANCE

A man's style in any art should be like his dress—it should attract as little attention as possible.

— SAMUEL BUTLER

Employ in everything a certain casualness which conceals art and creates the impression that what is done and said is accomplished without effort and without its being thought about.

It is from this, in my opinion, that grace largely derives.

— BALDASSARE CASTIGLIONE

Do not follow where the path may lead. Go instead where there is no path and leave a trail.

— MURIEL STRODE

“Anyone can make the simple complicated—creativity is making the complicated simple.”

— CHARLES MINGUS

•

Never judge a work of art by its defects.

— WASHINGTON ALLSTON

Never pay attention to what critics say. Remember, a statue has never been set up in honor of a critic.

— JEAN SIBELIUS

“Don’t be an art critic, but paint; there lies salvation.”

— PAUL CEZANNE

Art is the only thing you cannot punch a button for.
You must do it the old-fashioned way. Stay up and really burn the midnight oil. There are no compromises.

— LEONTYNE PRICE

“To be truly creative, you have to work beyond what you know.
Pushing the envelope is what being an artist is all about.”

— JOHN FERRIE

Take the best that exists and make it better. If it doesn't exist, create it.

— SIR HENRY ROYCE

“Sometimes you’ve got to let everything go—purge yourself.

If you are unhappy with anything . . . whatever is bringing you down, get rid of it. Because you’ll find that when you’re free, your true creativity, your true self comes out.”

— TINA TURNER

Technique alone is never enough. You have to have passion.

Technique alone is just an embroidered pot holder.

— RAYMOND CHANDLER

Use what talents you possess: the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang best.

— HENRY VAN DYKE

You should not give anybody the power to decide what is right and wrong in your creativity.

— ANAÏS NIN

Creativity comes from trust. Trust your instincts.
And never hope more than you work.

— RITA MAE BROWN

Think left and think right and think low and think high.

Oh, the thinks you can think up if only you try!

— DR. SEUSS (THEODOR GEISEL)

“Turn loose and have fun. Give the audience a show.”

— ROY ACUFF

Whatever you do, kid, serve it with a little dressing.

— GEORGE M. COHAN (TO SPENCER TRACY)

I believe entertainment can aspire to be art, and can become art, but if you set out to make art you're an idiot.

— STEVE MARTIN

Show business is really 90 percent luck and 10 percent being able to handle it when it gets offered to you.

— TOMMY STEELE

If you've got talent, stick with it . . .
because talent wins out, without a doubt.

— BOBBY SHERMAN

Actors should be overheard, not listened to, and the audience is 50 percent of the performance.

— SHIRLEY BOOTH

“‘Get out of show business.’ It’s the best advice I ever got, because I’m so stubborn that if someone would tell me that, I would stay in it to the bitter end.”

— WALTER MATTHAU

“Here’s my advice to you young comedians—live to be old comedians.

I don’t see how you can go wrong with that.”

— GEORGE BURNS

If you haven’t struck oil in the first three minutes—stop boring.

— GEORGE JESSEL

Chapter Eight

Imitate a Champion

{Advice on Sports and Competition}

Baseball is the only field of endeavor where a man can succeed three times out of ten and be considered a good performer.

— TED WILLIAMS

One man practicing sportsmanship is far better than 50 preaching it.

— KNUTE ROCKNE

The best and fastest way to learn a sport is to watch and imitate a champion.

— JEAN-CLAUDE KILLY

Push yourself again and again. Don't give an inch until the final buzzer sounds.

— LARRY BIRD

Nobody in the game of football should be called a genius.

A genius is somebody like Norman Einstein.

— JOE THEISMANN

The first thing is to love your sport. Never do it to please someone else. It has to be yours.

— PEGGY FLEMING

The race is not always to the swift, nor the battle to the strong,
but that's the way to bet.

— DAMON RUNYON

Never give up! Failure and rejection are only the first step to succeeding.

— JIM VALVANO

Age is no barrier. It's a limitation you put on your mind.

— JACKIE JOYNER-KERSEE

“Ask not what your teammates can do for you.

Ask what you can do for your teammates.”

— EARVIN “MAGIC” JOHNSON

Warriors take chances. Like everyone else, they fear failing, but they refuse to let fear control them.

— SAMURAI PROVERB

The greatest efforts in sports come when the mind is as still as a glass lake.

— W. TIMOTHY GALLWEY

“Luck is the residue of design.”

— BRANCH RICKEY

It’s not whether you get knocked down; it’s whether you get up.

— VINCE LOMBARDI

What you lack in talent can be made up with desire, hustle, and giving 110 percent all the time.

— DON ZIMMER

Loosen your girdle and let 'er fly!

— BABE DIDRIKSON ZAHARIAS

The highest compliment that you can pay me is to say that I work hard every day, that I never dog it.

— WAYNE GRETZKY

Gold medals aren't really made of gold. They're made of sweat, determination, and a hard-to-find alloy called guts.

— DAN GABLE

“Be bold. If you’re going to make an error, make a doozy, and don’t be afraid to hit the ball.”

— BILLIE JEAN KING

It ain’t over ’til it’s over.

— YOGI BERRA

The only way to prove that you’re a good sport is to lose.

— ERNIE BANKS

An acre of performance is worth a whole world of promise.

— RED AUERBACH

There may be people that have more talent than you, but there's no excuse for anyone to work harder than you do.

— DEREK JETER

Football is like life—it requires perseverance, self-denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication, and respect for authority.

— VINCE LOMBARDI

Competitive sports are played mainly on a five-and-a-half-inch court—the space between your ears.

— BOBBY JONES

“And listen—you’ve got to kid him. Get his goat. Call him ‘hot shot,’ ‘big britches,’ ‘smarty pants,’ or even ‘Toots,’ until he gets so nervous he doesn’t know which goal is which.”

— A COACH’S ADVICE TO A ROOKIE FOOTBALL PLAYER, AS QUOTED IN A 1937 WISCONSIN NEWSPAPER

Show me a guy who’s afraid to look bad, and I’ll show you a guy you can beat every time.

— LOU BROCK

An athlete cannot run with money in his pockets. He must run with hope in his heart and dreams in his head.

— EMIL ZATOPEK

Somewhere behind the athlete you've become and the hours of practice and the coaches who have pushed you is a little girl who fell in love with the game and never looked back . . . play for her.

— MIA HAMM

When you're riding, only the race in which you're riding is important.

— BILL SHOEMAKER

Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence win championships.

— MICHAEL JORDAN

The way a team plays as a whole determines its success. You may have the greatest bunch of individual stars in the world, but if they don't play together, the club won't be worth a dime.

— BABE RUTH

A champion is someone who gets up when he can't.

— JACK DEMPSEY

Make the hard ones look easy and the easy ones look hard.

— WALTER HAGEN

When you've got something to prove, there's nothing greater than a challenge.

— TERRY BRADSHAW

“Concentration is the ability to think about absolutely nothing when it is absolutely necessary.”

— RAY KNIGHT

You were born to be a player. You were meant to be here. This moment is yours.

— HERB BROOKS

The road to Easy Street goes through the sewer.

— JOHN MADDEN

•

How you respond to the challenge in the second half will determine what you become after the game, whether you are a winner or a loser.

— LOU HOLTZ

•

One hundred percent of shots not taken don't go in.

•

I've always made a total effort, even when the odds seemed entirely against me. I never quit trying; I never felt that I didn't have a chance to win.

— ARNOLD PALMER

“My motto was always to keep swinging. Whether I was in a slump or feeling badly or having trouble off the field, the only thing to do was keep swinging.”

— HANK AARON

You are never really playing an opponent.
You are playing yourself, your own highest standards, and when you reach your limits, that is real joy.

— ARTHUR ASHE

The more difficult the victory, the greater the happiness in winning.

— PELE

“Being number two sucks.”

— ANDRE AGASSI

•

You can learn a line from a win and a book from a defeat.

— PAUL BROWN

•

Defeat is worse than death because you have to live with defeat.

— ANONYMOUS

•

You can't win unless you learn how to lose.

— KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR

You gotta be careful with your body. Your body is like a bar of soap. The more you use it, the more it wears down.

— RICHIE ALLEN

One man can be a crucial ingredient on a team, but one man cannot make a team.

— KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR

You've got to take the initiative and play your game.
In a decisive set, confidence is the difference.

— CHRIS EVERT

When you win, say nothing, when you lose, say less.

— PAUL BROWN

The mind is the limit. As long as the mind can envision the fact that you can do something, you can do it, as long as you really believe 100 percent.

— ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

It's not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog.

— ARCHIE GRIFFIN

“When you're playing for the national championship, it's not a matter of life or death. It's more important than that.”

— DUFFY DAUGHERTY

The man who can drive himself further once the effort gets painful is the man who will win.

— ROGER BANNISTER

Some people say I have attitude, and maybe I do.
But I think you have to. You have to believe in yourself when no one else does. That makes you a winner right there.

— VENUS WILLIAMS

When I go out there, I have no pity on my brother.
I am out there to win.

— JOE FRAZIER

You just can't beat the person who never gives up.

— BABE RUTH

During my 18 years I came to bat almost 10,000 times. I struck out about 1,700 times and walked maybe 1,800 times. You figure a ballplayer will average about 500 at bats a season. That means I played seven years without ever hitting the ball.

— MICKEY MANTLE

You've got to get to the stage in life where going for it is more important than winning or losing.

— ARTHUR ASHE

To uncover your true potential you must first find your own limits and then you have to have the courage to blow past them.

— PICABO STREET

There's only one way to become a hitter.

Go up to the plate and get mad.

Get mad at yourself and mad at the pitcher.

—TED WILLIAMS

If you train hard, you'll not only be hard, you'll be hard to beat.

—HERSCHEL WALKER

"I don't believe you have to be better than everybody else. I believe you have to be better than you ever thought you could be."

—KEN VENTURI

Leaders aren't born, they are made. And they are made just like anything else, through hard work.

—VINCE LOMBARDI

Never break your putter and your driver in the same round or you're dead.

— GOLFER TOMMY BOLT (KNOWN AS "TERRIBLE-TEMPERED TOMMY")

If you have everything under control, you're not moving fast enough.

— MARIO ANDRETTI

Just keep going. Everybody gets better if they keep at it.

— TED WILLIAMS

To have long-term success as a coach or in any position of leadership, you have to be obsessed in some way

— PAT RILEY

The key to any game is to use your strengths and hide your weaknesses.

— PAUL WESTPHAL

“When you lose, you’re more motivated. When you win, you fail to see your mistakes and probably no one can tell you anything.”

— VENUS WILLIAMS

A champion is someone who gets up when he can’t.

— JACK DEMPSEY

You don’t have the game you played last year or last week.

You only have today’s game. It may be far from your best, but that’s all you’ve got. Harden your heart and make the best of it.

— WALTER HAGEN

Chapter Nine

A Word to the Wise

{Proverbs and Other Folk Sayings}

You often meet your fate on the road you take to avoid it.

— FRENCH PROVERB

A word to the wise is sufficient.

— LATIN PROVERB

“To know the road ahead, ask those coming back.”

Chapter Ten

Enjoy Your Ice Cream

{Advice on Advice}

When we honestly ask ourselves which person in our lives means the most to us, we often find that it is those who, instead of giving advice, solutions, or cures, have chosen rather to share our pain and touch our wounds with a warm and tender hand.

— HENRI NOUWEN

My advice to you is not to inquire why or whither, but just enjoy your ice cream while it's on your plate—that's my philosophy.

— THORNTON WILDER

The true secret of giving advice is, after you have honestly given it, to be perfectly indifferent whether it is taken or not, and never persist in trying to set people right.

— HANNAH WHITALL SMITH

“I always advise people never to give advice.”

— P. G. WODEHOUSE

Seek ye counsel of the aged, for their eyes have looked on the faces of the years and their ears have hearkened to the voices of Life.
Even if their counsel is displeasing to you, pay heed to them.

— KAHLIL GIBRAN

When a man comes to me for advice, I find out the kind of advice he wants, and I give it to him.

Good advice is something a man gives when he is too old to set a bad example.

— FRANÇOIS DE LA ROCHEFOUCAULD

All you teenagers out there. The big mistake you're making is that you listen to all that bad advice from kids your own age. You should listen to your parents. They're entitled to give you bad advice.

— GEORGE BURNS

Write down the advice of him who loves you, though you like it not at present.

— ITALIAN PROVERB

The best advice I can give is to ignore advice.
Life is too short to be distracted by the opinions of others.

— RUSSELL EDSON

Best advice on writing I've ever received: Finish.

— PETER MAYLE

“I have found the best way to give advice to your children is to find out what they want and then advise them to do it.”

— HARRY S. TRUMAN

If it's free, it's advice; if you pay for it, it's counseling;
if you can use either one, it's a miracle.

— JACK ADAMS

Advice is seldom welcome; and those who want it the most always like it the least.

— LORD CHESTERFIELD

Advice would always be more acceptable if it didn't conflict with our plans.

— NEW ENGLAND PROVERB

“Don't take a butcher's advice on how to cook meat. If he knew, he'd be a chef.”

— ANDY ROONEY

“Ask advice only of your equals.”

— DANISH PROVERB

Never take the advice of someone who has not had your kind of trouble.

— SIDNEY J. HARRIS

In giving advice, seek to help, not please, your friend.

— SOLON

People who ask our advice almost never take it. Yet we should never refuse to give it, upon request, for it often helps us to see our own way more clearly.

— BRENDAN FRANCIS

The advice of friends must be received with a judicious reserve; we must not give ourselves up to it and follow it blindly, whether right or wrong.

— PIERRE CHARRON

I owe my success to having listened respectfully to the very best advice, and then going away and doing the exact opposite.

— GILBERT K. CHESTERTON

The worst men often give the best advice.

— PHILIP JAMES BAILEY

“To profit from good advice requires more wisdom than to give it.”

— JOHN CHURTON COLLINS

Give advice to learn from your own hidden wisdom.

— DUANE ALAN HAHN

A good scare is worth more than good advice.

— HORACE

No vice is so bad as advice.

— MARIE DRESSLER

“When you encounter seemingly good advice that contradicts other seemingly good advice, ignore them both.”

— AL FRANKEN
